

Would you like a career in Jewish Education? Or are you looking to progress in your current job? Would you like to develop personally and professionally?

If so, then the MA in Jewish Education may be what you're looking for!

The MA in Jewish Education provides students with the opportunity to widen their horizons about Jewish education worldwide, keep up to date with changing trends and challenge them to be reflective about their work.

Classes are taught by a team of experienced rabbis and educators and includes, Rabbi Dr Deborah Kahn-Harris, Rabbi Richard Jacobi, Dr Leslie Bash, amongst others.

Class sizes at the College are small enabling students to be taught in a supportive, warm and friendly environment. The course is taught through a combination of intensive face to face seminars and distance learning.

More information from: Jo-Ann Myers, Director of Jewish Education at jo-ann.myers@lbc.ac.uk or +44 (0)20 8349 5626 or visit our website at www.lb.ac.uk/degrees-in-jewish-education